U.S. 160 south of Burden to be closed for railroad crossing repair

U.S. 160 south of Burden, in Cowley County, will be closed for five days in early June for a railroad crossing repair.

The approximate location of the closing is marked with a red dot on the map below.

The closing will be from around 6 a.m. Tuesday, June 7, until around 6 p.m. Saturday, June 11. Signs will direct traffic to a detour, outlined in red on the map below. KDOT uses state highways for official detour routes for safety, weight and maintenance concerns.
