Part of K-2 in Barber County being closed to replace culvert

The Kansas Department of Transportation is expecting to close about a quarter-mile section of K-2 in Barber County on Wednesday, July 27.

The expected daylong closure is needed to replace a culvert.

The section being closed is from Coats Street to Bare Road, between the two curves just west of Kiowa. Motorists should seek other routes during the closure.

The map below shows the approximate location of the planned closure, marked in red.
