Edwards retires after 47 years with KDOT

Long-time KDOT employee, Ron Edwards will retire on May 15, after 47 years of service. As a KDOT equipment operator, Edwards has probably plowed more snow than most people see in a lifetime. He's even plowed the way to the hospital for the ambulance when it couldn't get through the snow. He is often referred to as a jack of all trades and the original Mr. Fix It by his KDOT co-workers, who have relied on him to fix or customize equipment and tools.

Ron was born and raised in Beeler, KS and graduated from Beeler High School. He enjoys spending time with his family including his wife, Rosanne and daughters, Morgan and Madison. When not helping his daughters with DIY and home improvement projects, he enjoys fishing and polka music.
