Public meeting planned to discuss U.S. 281 bridge replacement near Portis

The Kansas Department of Transportation will host a public meeting and open house from 5:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Aug. 15, to provide information on the bridge replacement and closure on U.S. 281 north of Portis.

The event will be held at the Portis Community Center, located along U.S. Highway 281 in Portis. KDOT and project staff will provide a project overview starting at 5:30 p.m. Design plans and detour information will be available for review.

Construction on the bridge is scheduled to take place in 2024.

Anyone who requires language translation, special assistance or accommodation to attend the meeting should contact KDOT public affairs manager Lisa Mussman at 785-874-8107 or lisa.mussman@ks.gov one week before the meeting date.
