KDOT Secretary Julie Lorenz joins national panel to discuss key growth areas for aviation sector

WHAT: Kansas Department of Transportation Secretary Julie Lorenz is among the panelists in an online discussion hosted by the Alliance for Aviation Across America about the future of aviation. The general aviation industry has made impressive investments in sustainable aviation fuel (SAF) and emerging technologies such as advanced air mobility (AAM), important areas of growth when recovery and mobility remain critical. Panelists will also discuss how federal investment and support are needed to spur and incentivize further growth for the sector. Secretary Lorenz is chair of the American Association of State Highway & Transportation Officials (AASHTO) Council on Aviation.

WHEN: 2 p.m. on Thursday, June 10

WHERE: The event will be hosted on Zoom. CLICK HERE to register.

SPEAKERS: KDOT Secretary Julie Lorenz; Mayor Barbara Tolbert, Arlington, Wash.; Commissioner Bill Holen, Arapahoe County Colorado, National Association of Counties; Michael Alaimo, Michigan Chamber of Commerce; and Neil Ritchie, Main Street Project.
