Bert Cantwell memorial interchange to be dedicated

Kansas City – The Bert Cantwell memorial interchange at 110th Street and I-70 will be dedicated June 3 at 9:30 a.m. in honor of Cantwell’s lifelong contributions to the state of Kansas and the United States.

Cantwell, who died in 1996, had a long career serving in public positions including Wyandotte County sheriff, Kansas Highway Patrol superintendent and United States Marshall. He also served in appointed positions at the city and state level, including the Kansas City, KS, chamber of commerce.

The interchange signage was funded by the family and donors and will be unveiled at the ceremony. Parking is available on 110th St south of I-70.
